

Mina's Recipe Book - Terezin 1944

Author/Director: Anne Georget

Producer: Quark productions

Country: France

Length: 45'

"Cakes for new mothers, Baden Caramel sweets, Quetsch

strudel, Linzertorte..."

A handwritten recipe book, covered in craft paper, held together by a simple piece of string.

Deported by the nazis in Terezin, Mina Pächter wrote down, before dying of starvation, her best recipes to send to her daughter who had escaped to Palestine.

It took twenty years for the book to fall into the hands of her daughter...

Festivals:

Jewish Eye - World Jewish Film Festival d'Ashkelon, Israël, en 2008

Coproduction TV: TV Rennes TV participation: Planète Original version: French Versions available:

English version French version

Credits:

Author Director: Anne Georget, photography: Etienne Carton de Grammont, Sound: Dominique Kerboeuf, editing: Valérie Salvy, music: Jean-Baptiste Loussier, commentary: Claude Decultis, Elke Harckman, Elisabeth Wagner

 $\underline{http://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1019\&lang=en}$