

The Last Rodeo

Author/Director: Andrés Jarach

Producer: Quark productions

Country: Argentina/France

Length: 52' & 90'

Andres Retamal is a famous rodeo champion and has been training and riding wild horses all around Patagonia for many years. At forty he is thinking about retiring but for his last season, he has decided to compete in the only rodeo that he hasn't won, in the little town of Gobernador Costa, two thousand miles away. And for this long journey, his four year old son - already a rodeo expert - will come with him... The film follows father and son on this emotional trip on the roads of Patagonia with music from members of the Gotan Project.
