

Green Ground Girls

Author/Director: Fodil Chabbi and Julien Dubois

Producer: Arturo Mio

Country: France

Length: 52'

The Emir Abdel Kader club in Algiers is an exception in the ultra masculine world of soccer. It is a women's soccer club that defies the taboos and the constraints of the patriarchal Algerian society. It is a unique place where women from all walks of life meet, play and fight together to conquer what Algeria refuses to women: autonomy, professional achievement, and the acceptance of the woman's body. They are pioneers stepping out of the recent, dark and violent history of Algeria, shedding light to the heart of the future generations.

Festivals: FIFDH Genève

Coproduction: Patio Prod, Blister prod Coproduction TV: Images Plus

Original version: Arab Versions available: French version English version

Credits:

Author, Director : Fodil Chabbi, Julien Dubois, photography : Fodil Chabbi , Sound : Clément Marc Demazières de Chambon , editing : Akila Ikené

 $\underline{https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1122\&lang=en}$