

THE LAST POETS /made in Amerikkka

Author/Director: Claude Santiago

Producer: LA HUIT PRODUCTION

Country: France

Length: 52'

Harlem 1968, a group of young poets get together and found THE LAST POETS, the founding fathers of today's hip hop, rap and slam. The group denounces the oppression of African-Americans, while painting a devastating yet humorous picture of life in the ghetto. Nearly forty years after their separation, the members of this legendary group come together for a one-time concert.

Coproduction: 3D Family, Banlieues Bleues

Coproduction TV: Trace TV

Original version: English

Versions available:
English version
French version

Credits:
Author, Director: Claude Santiago

https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1158&lang=en