Country: France

Length: 52'

In 2013 a trial put an end to a paedophilia case that took place from 1969 to 2001.

Those kids now adults between 30 and 50 years old, testify and help us understand why silence and guilt have kept them from denouncing their aggressor as they were trapped in a system they were unarmed to fight. It shows the ravages such acts have caused in their lives.

Never has a film given such clear a voice to the victims of pedophilia who after the trial can finally escape from their status of victims.
