

Intimate Battles

Author/Director: Lucía Gajá

Producer: Caguama Producciones

Country: Mexico

Length: 87' and 52'

Love shouldn't hurt. Too many marriages around the world turn from a promise of love to hidden violence, where the home is a prison.

How do you escape from this situation, from mistreatment or even death? To a similar situation, same answers around the world, may it be in Finland, Mexico, India, Spain or the USA. A moving documentary that gives voice to women who were able to rebuild themselves and here, valiantly, give their testimony.

Awards: Best Documentary, New Earth International Film Festival 2019
Spirit of Activism Award, Colorado Environmental Film Festival 2019
Heritage Awareness Prize, Panama Documentary Film Festival 2019

Festivals:

FICMorelia 2016 / FICGuadalajara 2017 /
Ambulante, Mexico /
Valencia film festival, Spain /
MICGENERO, Mexico-Argentina /
Festival do Rio - Brésil /
Cine Latino Minneapolis Saint Paul Film Festival, USA /
Human Rights Human Wrongs Nord AS (Norway)/
Bayelsa International Film Festival (Nigeria) /

Coproduction: IMCINE, FOPROCINE.

Original version: Spanish

Versions available:
English version

Credits:

Author, Director: Lucía Gajá

<https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1229&lang=en>