

You Will Be Swedish, My Daughter

Author/Director: Claire Billet, Olivier Jobard

Producer: Squawk

Country: France

Length: 58'

A Syrian refugee couple, Ahmad and Jihane, tell the story of their exile to Sweden to their youngest daughter Sally. They recount their journey as migrants being smuggled across borders, evoke memories of their beloved Syria, and talk of the violence which is present at all times... Ahmad and Jihane then compare their differing points of view. What will they remember? What will they tell their children about the past? Between their unspoken thoughts and obsessions, the future identity of the family is being constructed...

TV participation: France Télévisions

Original version: Arabic

Versions available:

English version

French version

Credits:

Director: Claire Billet, Olivier Jobard. editing: Ronan Siquin

<https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1245&lang=en>