

Child Trafficking

Author/Director: Olivier Ballande

Producer: Quark productions

Country: France

Length: 57'

Hundreds of thefts are regularly committed in the Paris metro by Romanian children. After several arrests, the Juvenile Protection Brigade takes over the case.

The film follows the investigation carried out in collaboration with the Romanian police. Very quickly interrogations and tapping reveal that thefts are entirely donated to the parents and then returned to Romania to pay off debts of honor. An intense film on justice in the face of child trafficking on a European scale.

Coproduction TV: ARTE France

Original version: French

Versions available:

English version

French version

Credits:

Director: Olivier Ballande, photography: Jean-François Tusso, Sound: Romaric Pivant, editing: Dimitri Bonnet

<https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1277&lang=en>