

Zoo Station: The Story of Christiane F.

Author/Director: Claire Laborey

Producer: Squawk

Country: France

Length: 52'

When Zoo Station - The Story of Christiane F. was published in West Germany in 1979 it shocked the public but became an international best seller. The book tells the true story of Christiane Felscherinow, a West Berlin teenager who prostitutes herself to pay for her heroin consumption, bringing to light the extent of German youth's drug problem. This documentary deals with the consequences induced by the publication of the book in Germany.

Coproduction TV: ARTE France

Original version: German

Versions available:
English version

Credits:
Director: Claire Laborey, photography: Leif Karpe, Juhani Zebra, Sound: Thomas Warneke, editing: Alexandre Auque, music: Stéphanie Blanc, Jérôme Levatois

<https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1316&lang=en>