

Ciné-Guerillas: Scenes From The Labudovi? Reels

Author/Director: Mila Turajlic?

Producer: Survivance

Country: France

Length: 94' & 52'

Website: www.nonalignednewsreels.com

Ciné-Guerrillas is a documentary that take us on an archival road trip through the birth of the Third World project, based on unseen 35mm materials filmed by Stevan Labudovi?, the cameraman of Yugoslav President Tito.

It plunges us into the media battle that played out during the Algerian war for independence where cinema was mobilized as a weapon of political struggle against colonialism.

Awards: GRAND PRIX DU FESTIVAL @ Festival International du Cinéma Engagé - Algiers, Algeria

Festivals:

WORLD PREMIERE @ TIFF - Toronto, Canada / DokLeipzig - Leipzig, Germany / IDFA - Amsterdam, Netherlands / Trieste Film Festival - Trieste - Italia / Dublin International Film Festival - Dublin, Ireland / ZagrebDox - Zabreb, Croatia / Visions du Réel - Nyon, Switzerland / Crossing Europe - Austria / Fema La Rochelle - France / Pula Film Festival - Croatia / Makedox - North Macedonia / DMZ Docs - South Korea / In Light Rights Documentary Film Festival - USA

Coproduction: Poppy Pictures, Filmske Novosti, Restart, Kino

Coproduction TV: Al Jazeera English

Original version: Serbian, English, French, Arabic

Credits:

Director: Mila Turajlic?. photography, Sound: Mila Turajlic?. editing: Sylvie Gadmer, Anne Renardet, Mila Turajlic?

<https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1350&lang=en>