

The Gospel of Revolution

Author/Director: François-Xavier DROUET

Producer: L'atelier documentaire

Country: France

Length: 115'

The revolutionary fervor that swept through Latin America in the 20th century owes much to the participation of millions of Christians who engaged in political struggles in the name of their faith. Driven by liberation theology, they paid a heavy tribute for undermining the traditional relationship between Church and Power. The film explores the experiences of men and women who believe to have witnessed in the revolution the advent of God's Kingdom on earth, rather than in heaven.

Festivals

World Premiere @ Cinéma du Réel, France /
Biografilm Festival, Italy /
États généraux du film documentaire de Lussas, France /
Gindou Film Festival, France /
Dokumentale, Germany /
Duhok International Film Festival, Kurdistan, Iraq /
BIENAL DE CINE INVISIBLE - BOLIVIA

Coproduction: Need Productions, Shelter Prod, Taxshelter.be

Original version: Portuguese, Spanish, French

Credits:

Director: François-Xavier DROUET. photography: Colin Lévêque. Sound:

Bruno Schweisguth. editing: Agnès Bruckert

 $\underline{https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1367\&lang=en}$