

Happiness to All

Author/Director: Filip Remunda

Producer: HYPERMARKET FILM

Country: Czech Republic, Netherlands, France

Length: 95'

Vitaly is over 50 years old and a sincere supporter of Vladimir Putin. He has gone through difficult times, having lost his job and home, and now lives a temporary, hopeless life on the outskirts of Novosibirsk, in Siberia. Over the course of eight years, the film captures Vitaly's transformation from a naive patriot into a disillusioned critic of the contemporary world, where the older generations cling to the stability of the past, while young people adopt radicalized viewpoints to express their frustrations.

Awards: Opus Bonum Award for the Best Central and East European Documentary Film + Special Mention for the Best Czech Documentary @ Ji.hlava International Documentary Film Festival - Czech Republic

Festivals:

World Premiere @ Ji.hlava International Documentary Film Festival - International Competition - Czech Republic / Rome International Documentary Festival - Italy / FIPADOC - France / Docpoint Helsinki Documentary Festival - Finland / Artdocfest Riga - Latvia / Febiofest Bratislava - Slovakia / Etats généraux du film documentaire, France / Neisse Film Festival - Germany / Beldocs IDFF - Serbia / Sofia Documental International Film Festival - Bulgaria / Astra Film Festival - Romania

Coproduction: Volya Films, Mandra Films

Coproduction TV: Czech Television

Original version: Russian

Credits:

Director: Filip Remunda. photography: Jakub Halousek. Sound: Michal Gábor. editing: Tatiana Vikhrev. music: Minco Eggersman

<https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1394&lang=en>