

Toxic Waste. A Timebomb under our Feet

Author/Director: Ghislaine Buffard

Producer: SEPPIA

Country: France

Length: 52' - 90'

Since the Industrial Revolution, we have gradually polluted the air, water, and soil. One realm remained untouched for a long time: the underground. Once exploited for its mineral resources, the depths of the Earth are now sought after for a different purpose: to store our most dangerous waste there, for eternity...
